NOTICE

This is to inform that all NRIs can enroll as NRI voters in the electoral rolls in their native place in India to enable them to become a part of the election process. Under Section 20 A the Representation of People Act 1950 and rules made there under, every citizen of India (a) whose name is not included in the electoral roll; (b) who has not acquired the citizenship of any other country; and (c) who is absenting from his place of ordinary residence in India owing to his employment, education or otherwise outside India, is entitled to have his/her name registered in the electoral roll as "Overseas electors" in the constituency in one's place of residence in India as mentioned in one's passport.

2. The application for this purpose can be filled in prescribed form in person before the concerned Electoral Registration Officer or sent by post or can be filed online on website of Chief Electoral Officer of the concerned state or website of Election Commission of India(eci.nic.in). After getting enrolled in the electoral roll, such person can cast his/her vote in India during Assembly or Parliamentary election at the respective polling station after showing his/her valid Indian passport.
